San Diego Performing Arts League Announces Volunteers to be Honored at the 21st Star Awards Ceremony

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA - February 11, 2014 - The San Diego Performing Arts League has announced that 32 volunteers have been selected by local performing arts organizations to be honored this year at the 21st Star Awards. The arts organizations are recognizing their volunteers for their dedication and the crucial role they have played in helping their respective organizations weather the current economic climate.

The San Diego Performing Arts League's Star Awards honors volunteers of San Diego County arts organizations, and recognizes the indispensable role that volunteers play in the arts community. Each organization selects its own special volunteer to be recognized. These honored volunteers have donated countless hours to music, theater, dance and other cultural institutions in San Diego County.

The San Diego Performing Arts League is a membership-based, social-profit organization whose mission is to promote San Diego's performing arts. SDPAL is an arts-service umbrella organization comprised of local performing arts organizations, and is dedicated to supporting and promoting the region's performing arts. SDPAL operates the Arts Tix booth at Horton Plaza, as well as the online SDArtsTix website. ArtsTix is the only not-for-profit ticket vendor in the San Diego region and supports local performing arts groups by selling discount and full-price tickets. Arts Tix's income helps to fund SDPAL's programs and services to the performing arts community.
