

WITHOUT PRECEDENT: THE SUPREME LIFE OF ROSALIE ABELLA

PHOTO DESCRIPTIONS

Photography Credit: Courtesy Melbar Entertainment Group, plus any additional credits listed below.
Barry Avrich photo credit: Wade Hudson

| TITLE | PICTURED (L to R) | DESCRIPTION |
|--|--|---|
| Without Precedent_1_credit Dave Chan | Rosalie Abella | Rosalie Abella on the steps of the Supreme Court of Canada. Credit: Dave Chan. |
| Without Precedent_2_credit Jennifer Roberts | Rosalie Abella | A stunning portrait of Justice Abella captured in the days leading up to her departure from the Supreme Court. Credit: Jennifer Roberts. |
| Without Precedent_3_Canadian Press | Rosalie Abella | Rosalie Abella pictured at her swearing-in ceremony for the Supreme Court of Canada in 2004. |
| Without Precedent_4 | Irving Abella, Rosalie Abella | Irving Abella and Rosalie Abella pictured on the couch of their home, surrounded by their lively art collection. |
| Without Precedent_5 | Rosalie Abella | Rosalie Abella strides down the storied hallways of the Supreme Court of Canada; the filmmakers gained unprecedented access to Rosalie Abella in her final days on the bench. |
| Without Precedent_6 | Margaret Atwood | Rosalie's friend, internationally-renowned author Margaret Atwood, regales the filmmakers with personal, never-before-told stories of Rosalie Abella's fun, personal side. |
| Without Precedent_7 | The Right Honourable Brian Mulroney | The documentary features candid commentary from three former Canadian Prime Ministers, including Brian Mulroney. |
| Without Precedent_8 | The Right Honourable Paul Martin | Former Prime Minister Paul Martin appointed Rosalie Abella to the Supreme Court of Canada in 2004. |
| Without Precedent_9 | Adam Gopnik | Author, writer for The New Yorker, and one of the stars of the recent motion picture Tár, Adam Gopnik gives us his perspective on his friend, Rosalie Abella. |
| Without Precedent_10 | The Right Honourable Joe Clark | Former Prime Minister Joe Clark also sat down with the filmmakers to discuss Rosie's incredible career and legacy. |