FROM THE DIRECTOR

Sandy Siperstein Rafner

Here it is - the end of the regular sessions of Camp Jaycee 2019. What an amazing summer this has been. This last week, all of our theatre camps put on amazing productions in the theatre. We ended the week with an amazing all camp sports and kindness day, a BBQ, and a very special Shabbat. What a great way to close out the summer! We have had a great time with your children and we hope to see each and every one of them throughout the year in our many programs, and of course next summer back at Camp Jaycee. Please take the time to check out the post camp offerings and call the office for more information. We also offer a large number of youth programs during the year and would love to see your smiling faces. We want to thank everyone who helped make this year’s camp special and exciting. Our staff was once again top notch, the Camp committee and volunteers went above and beyond in making this a memorable experience!

Camp Mom Blog

“SO, what camp are we doing next year?” As the summer weeks come to an end, my campers are getting ready to brace themselves against the inevitable sadness that comes when camp ends. After 8 weeks, they want so bad to cling to the memories and fun and the camp friends, some of which they will not see until next year. So to soften the blow, they are making plans for next year. There is a comfort in knowing that camp will be back again in a mere 10 months. Some kids are focused on staying with the camp they love, moving up in the age group and ready to take on more challenges. For us its knowing that after 3 years in Habima, Bidur is just around the corner (yes, that’s a reference to the Addams Family show put on this year by Bidur!). And for others its planning to break from tradition and try something new and different. Camp Jaycee is the most special of places. My kids would not dream of going anywhere else. My kids dream of their soon to be CIT and counselor years. And I know that my friends, other camp moms and dads, feels the same. Our kids are safe, engaged, challenged and more than anything else, adored. So thank you to the camp staff and administration for another fantastic summer. We are ready to console the tears that will come this Friday knowing that soon enough they will all be back at their happy place!

From,
Camp Mom
